

ALL OVER NOW

Democrats Finally Close Four Days' Tumultuous Convention.

Ex-Senator Davis of West Virginia Secures Easy Victory for Second Place.

For President—

Alton B. Parker of New York.

For Vice President—

Henry J. Davis of West Virginia.

St. Louis, July 11.—It was after 1 o'clock Sunday morning when one of the most notable national conventions in the history of the Democratic party adjourned after a series of sessions covering four days and during which were enacted scenes fraught with as much enthusiasm as ever were witnessed in a similar assemblage.

With the nomination at a few minutes before 6 o'clock Saturday morning of Judge Alton Brooks Parker of New York as president, the convention adjourned until 2 p. m., when it was expected the nomination of a vice president would be speedily accomplished.

At that hour, however, it became rumored that a message had been received from Judge Parker, the presidential nominee, questioning the convention's action in leaving out of the platform a money plank, and intimating that without some satisfactory explanation of the situation he would feel it his duty to decline the nomination. In order to clear up the very delicate situation thus presented the leaders secured an adjournment until 5 o'clock.

The telegram from Judge Parker follows: "I regard the gold standard as finally and irrevocably established, and I shall act accordingly if the action of the convention today is ratified by the people. Inasmuch as the platform is silent on the subject, I deem it necessary to try to make this communication to the convention for its consideration, as I should feel it my duty to decline the nomination without that understanding."

At 5 o'clock the convention reassembled and the following names of "favorite sons" for the vice presidential nomination were presented: J. R. Williams of Illinois; George E. Turner of Washington; Henry G. Davis of West Virginia; William A. Harris of Kansas.

The disquieting rumor concerning Judge Parker's attitude then became current and following the nominations the convention took a recess until 8 o'clock. When it reconvened Chairman Clark announced that a grave matter had presented itself to the consideration of the convention, and John Sharp Williams was introduced. He read the message from Judge Parker and brought the matter sharply to a focus by reading the following telegram, which it was proposed should be dispatched at once in answer to Judge Parker's unequivocal statement of his position:

"The platform adopted by this convention is silent on the question of monetary standard because it is not regarded by us as a possible issue in this campaign. As only live issues are touched upon in the platform, there is nothing in it to preclude you from accepting the nomination."

This precipitated a debate which kept up for hours. It was led by Mr. Bryan for the "radicals," he maintaining that the formal adoption of such a reply would be equivalent to the introduction of a gold plank in the platform, and the discussion waged hot and furious. Finally, when the question was put to a vote the letter to Judge Parker was adopted by a vote of 774 to 191. A roar of applause followed.

The nomination of vice president was then quickly accomplished, the vote being as follows: Davis, 654; Turner, 100; Williams, 165; Harris, 58. The nomination of Davis was then made unanimous.

THE VOTE FOR PARKER

First Ballot, While Not Sufficient, Was Conclusive.

But for changes in the initial ballot for president of the United States Judge Parker of New York would not have been nominated on the first call of the states at the Democratic national convention.

To a nomination 667 votes or two-thirds of the total representation in the convention are necessary. Judge Parker received only 658. Of his victory, however, this showing left not the shadow of a doubt. Before the result could be announced Idaho, West Virginia, Nevada, Washington and other states had changed their votes, giving the New Yorker, between them, enough additional ballots to make up the necessary 667.

Then Governor Dockery of Missouri moved to make the nomination unanimous and the suggestion carried with a yell of applause. There was an ovation, but after the strain of a nine and a half hours' session in the sweltering convention hall neither delegates nor spectators had much energy left and the demonstration was neither very vigorous nor of long duration.

The result of the ballot was not announced and, so far as the official records are concerned, Judge Parker was the choice by acclamation of his entire party.

Though the session opened at 8 p. m., and continued without intermission until nearly 6 a. m., though the excitement was exhausting and the heat stifling, fully two-thirds of the crowd remained to the end. Considering that the favorite sons—with the single exception of Judson Harmon, whose name had been formally withdrawn by the Ohio delegation—received the support of their states on the original ballot, Judge Parker's showing was so strong as to surprise even his friends.

With the New York jurist leading with 658 votes, Hearst, his nearest rival, received 204. The other candidates trailed in the rear as follows: Cockrell, 42; Olney, 38; Wall, 27; Gray, 8; Williams, 8; Miles, 3; McClellan, 3; Turner, 2; Towne, 2; Gorman, 2; Coler, 1; Pattison, 1. Of these McClellan, Turner, Towne, Gorman, Coler and Pattison were not formally nominated at all, but simply received the votes of individual admirers.

JUDGE PARKER

While the Choice of Democrats at St. Louis is Tamely Received Here.

Outside of three or four Democrats in Rushville, the remainder of the party showed no interest whatever in the proceedings at St. Louis, and those that did were avowed Bryan men and only got really interested when Bryan was recognized.

The complete apathy of the local Democrats shows that so far as Judge Parker is concerned the great bulk of the local Democrats are suffering from an acute attack of "cold feet." The man from Esopus isn't worrying the Rush County "Unterrified" to any great extent.

The other night when a nomination was momentarily expected and the whole county Democracy was supposed to be on the tip-toe of expectation, the streets were deserted. Nobody cared.

If a big prize fight had been on there would have been fifty men down town to every one who was on the streets Friday night.

It is a well known fact that a number of friends of W. J. B. are a little chagrined at his being ruled out of the party.

The interest in the vice presidential candidate, if any exists is entirely unnoticeable. Outside of John D. Megee, who was at St. Louis and heard them tell who he is none know anything about him.

After some discussion it was decided that he was a popular man in his State about a half century ago.

His age, like that of Judge Thurman, almost precludes any rear platform campaign. Mr. Davis is about 81 years of age.

It is a significant fact that just one year ago, had we inquired about either Parker or Davis, not a single Democrat in Rush county could have told you who they were, and where they lived.

Over Shelbyville Lines

The question of the route of the Rushville traction line into Indianapolis, which has been a matter of interest to property-owners in Irvington and east of the city, has been settled. The tracks will pass under the O. H. & D. road about a mile east of Irvington and run in a southwesterly direction to what would be an extension of Prospect street, about one-half mile south of Irvington, thence west, forming a junction with the Shelbyville line at Prospect street and Southeastern avenue, making an entrance to the heart of the city over this line, which is now owned by the same company.

WIFE AND CHILD

Child Dead and Wife in an Unconscious Condition—No Clew as Yet.

Upon his return home from town late Saturday night, William Starbuck, a farmer living near Greensboro in Henry county, about fifteen miles north of this city, found his home badly disarranged and his wife and little baby missing.

Attracted by screams, he ran in to the woods nearby and found his wife and the dead body of his child at the bottom of an abandoned well.

It is believed that a double murder was attempted. Bloodhounds were given the scent, but without result. The mystery is still unsolved. Mrs. Starbuck is not expected to live. She has not been conscious since she was found.

Starbuck left home with his three-year-old daughter at 8 o'clock Saturday night. Two hours later he returned. He found his three-months' babe drowned in a well and his wife standing in the well barely alive.

The cistern was an eighth of a mile behind the house, down a lane, closed by two gates with intricate locks. Both gates were closed and locked.

There was a bruise over Mrs. Starbuck's eye, such as might have been made by a slung shot and an ugly bruise on her neck. The babe showed no bruises.

The reason for the tragedy is buried in mystery. Bloodhounds Sunday afternoon struck a trail at the old well and followed it to a hitching post two miles east. Additional hounds trained to the tracing of wagons have been sent for.

One of the neighbors says that he saw a wagon standing at the hitching post on the night of the tragedy and two men were seated in it and one was on the ground closing a valise. Suspicion rests on some parties and they are being quietly watched.

An Old Pioneer Dead.

Morgan Linville died July 8th, 1904. He was born in Bath county, Kentucky, June 7th, 1818. At two years of age, his father moved to Indiana and took a homestead in Richland township, Rush county. At that time the land was swamps and woodland. His father died in Cincinnati, Ohio, and his mother in Andersonville, Franklin county, Indiana. The rest of his father's family dying away from home make this the first funeral that ever occurred on the old homestead.

He was married to Deborah Ann Hamilton, March 26th, 1845. To this union there were nine children born, of whom all are living. He was sick but a very short time and bore his afflictions to the last when he passed away quietly.

The funeral services were held at the house and conducted by Rev. Taylor, of Clarksburg, Sunday at ten o'clock and the remains were interred at the Hopewell cemetery.

He was one of the old-time settlers of the county and had many friends and acquaintances who are pained to learn of his death.

Mr. Henry Wants Lot.

Hon. James E. Watson, this morning, received a letter from Mr. Charles Henry, president of the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company, saying that they must have the lot guaranteed them at once, as the time has come for the erection of buildings for which this lot is to be used. A meeting of the guarantors will be held within the next day or two to make the final arrangements.

Stable Burned at Carthage.

The stable of O. W. Rider at Carthage burned to the ground last night the local fire company being unable to save it. They succeeded however in saving the barn on the next lot. The origin of the fire is unknown.

BOOMING JACKSON

Democrats Think Stokes Would Make Good Candidate.

"Stokes" Jackson, of Greenfield, for lieutenant governor. This is the program that has been framed by a coterie of influential Indiana Democratic politicians. The fact that a movement of this kind is on leaked out today.

Jackson is a delegate from the Sixth district to the national convention. Formerly he was a member of the State committee for the Sixth district.

As a political hustler he is a wonder. Rain, storm, mud and darkness do not deter him from the performance of a necessary political mission. He has adopted a motto, which is becoming famous among Indiana Democrats. It is:

"A Democrat should never sleep in campaign time."

Jackson was the most enthusiastic Bryan shouter in Indiana until about six months ago. Then he joined the forces led by Hill and Belmont, but at heart he still thinks that his old Nebraska idol is the best man in the country.

NOT CHANGED

Names of C. H. & D. and Pere Marquette Will Remain the Same.

Contrary to many printed reports, the old Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton company is in absolute control of the new combine of railroads. It is not a syndicate management or a holding company, and that idea may be dropped.

New capital bought the C. H. & D., the Pere Marquette and the Chicago, Cincinnati & Louisville. It is the old C. H. & D. under new management.

This definite statement recently made ought to set a rest the various conjectures concerning who's who in connection with the deal.

The Pere Marquette and the Chicago, Cincinnati & Louisville will maintain their corporate existence, and will not sacrifice their identity so far as to yield their individual names.

The combination of the three lines is admitted by railroad experts to be the strongest in the Central States. There are only two north-and-south lines which are on a par with it, the Rock Island and Illinois Central.

The C. H. & D. combination will have a clear field from Lake Superior to Buffalo, Cincinnati, Chicago and other strategic points.

The traffic arrangements which have existed between the C. H. & D. and the Monon for twenty years may not, after all, be terminated, inasmuch as each of these lines will be able to give the other traffic which otherwise would be lost.

An official expressed the belief yesterday that the arrangements would be continued, thus giving the C. H. & D. two routes to Chicago. The Monon, of course, is anxious to maintain its present Cincinnati connection.

Notwithstanding the continuance of this route, the C. C. & L. according to an official statement made to the Commercial Tribune yesterday is expected to earn double its fixed charges.

The new owners of the merged lines will make a complete inspection of the property next week and will probably meet in Cincinnati this week.

Fourth of July Victim.

Kenneth Clark, the 14-year-old son of Grant Clark, at Cambridge City, died at the home of his parents, Friday evening, as the result of being shot on the evening of July 4th. Young Clark was shot through the neck by a bullet fired from a rifle in the hands of five-year-old Omer McDowell, who was visiting the Clark family. The bullet almost severed the windpipe and lodged at the base of the brain. It was thought at the time of the shooting that Clark could not live and the hold he had on life was something remarkable.

NORTH VERNON

Proves a Very Easy Thing for Rushville

Local Team Administers Defeat to Boys from Jennings County.

The local team yesterday administered a defeat to the North Vernon Reds which they will not forget very soon.

Rushville took the lead in the first two innings by bunching their hits and batting out six runs. The boys from Jennings county were unable to overcome the lead and suffered a defeat by a score of 8 to 1.

The visitors were entitled to a home run swat by W. Moore, but for a bad decision of Umpire Yazel, who called it a foul. The ball went through the willows almost directly behind the left field foul stake, but those who were in a position to see it say that it was fair by three or four feet. The Reds would have scored another run had not C. Darringer cut third base in the eighth inning.

The game was featureless except for Yazel's triple hit, and sensational catch in left field, and Pearsey's stop of a high wild throw to first base by Volner.

Volner, the new second baseman, proved himself there with the goods.

In the first inning, Morgan singled to left, stole second and scored on Pearsey's double. Pearsey doubled to center, went to third on Herald's single and stole home. Herald singled to center, stole second, took third and scored on a wild throw by N. Moore to C. Darringer.

In the second Catt singled through second, was passed to second by Yazel, to third by Carter and scored on an error. Yazel sent one too hot for the third baseman, went to second on Carter's hit and took third on an error by F. Moore in center, scoring on Morgan's single. Carter singled through second on an error by F. Moore, was passed to third by Morgan hit and scored on an error by Filford.

No more runs were scored until the eighth, when in North Vernon's half, Dixon reached first on Volner's wild throw to Pearsey which the latter stopped with a high jump, went to second on C. Darringer's hit through third, took third, when Walker was hit by a pitched ball and scored on a single by Filford to center.

In Rushville's half of the same inning, Catt singled to left and scored on Yazel's triple. Yazel tripled to center and scored on Morgan's double to the same place.

The two teams lined up in the following order:

North Vernon—Dixon, p.; N. Moore, c.; W. Moore, 1b.; Walker, 2b.; Filford, ss.; C. Darringer, 3b.; H. Darringer, 1f.; F. Moore, cf.; Morris, rf.

Score by innings:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R	H	E
Rushville	3	3	0	0	0	0	2	x	—	8	13
N. Vernon	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	—	8	10

Batteries, Bippus and Morgan, Dixon and Moore; struck out by Bippus 4, by Dixon 4; bases on balls, off Bippus 2, Dixon 1; stolen bases, Morgan, Pearsey, Herald, Volner, Kiser, Catt, Yazel, Filford and Carter; hit by pitcher, N. Moore and Walker; three-base hit, Yazel; two-base hits, Morgan and Pearsey; earned runs, Rushville, 3; left on bases, Rushville 6, North Vernon 4; double plays, Filford to W. Moore to N. Moore; sacrifice hits, Carter and W. Moore; umpire, Yazel; time of game, 1 hr. 40 min; attendance, 800.

To World's Fair.

Miss Alma Odear, who goes to the St. Louis World's Fair at the expense of the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune, having received the highest number of votes for the lady to go from this county, left this morning for Cincinnati, where she will join the Tribune party this evening. Tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock she will leave in a special train with 150 other prize winners for St. Louis.

YOUR DOG TAX.

If Not Paid Will be Reported to City Council.

Marshal Pearsey has been busy for several weeks collecting the city dog tax and out of 130 dogs reported he has collected from all but 37.

Some of these refused to pay saying tax was illegal, some did not have the money and some claimed that the dog did not belong to them, but under the advice of the city attorney, Marshal Pearsey will at the next meeting of the Council report all not paid and the city council will probably place them with the city attorney for collection by force of law.

Echo of the Game

Greensburg Review: Our genial friend, Alf. Barnes, remembers Rushville quite well as he was relieved of thirty dollars Friday while in that city. Alf., who always likes to put a little money up on the outcome of any game, so as to make it interesting, placed fifteen dollars in some Rushville man's hands as a bet that the Reds would win. During the time Rushville was in the lead the fellow stayed near, but when the eleventh inning was on, he departed for parts unknown, and is still at large. Alf. doesn't mind the loss of his money so much, but his ideas of Rushville citizens is now down to a low margin.

(We had not heard of the above, but if it is as true as many other statements made at Greensburg it's O. K.)

Water Pipe Breaks.

About 9:30 o'clock while the workmen for the traction company were plowing up Third street, this morning, between Main and Perkins street, the plow struck one of the city's water mains, causing a very bad leak. The water spouted up for a distance of twenty feet or more and Supt. Ong had to shut off the water at three or four different places so as to get the water stopped. The break is being repaired today.

If the Democratic leaders imagine that they are to acquire any partisan advantage by personal attacks upon Theodore Roosevelt, let them make the most of it. This man is too well known; he is too much of a man; he is too much the kind of a man that the people like, for the opposition to strengthen themselves in the least by such a course. Then, too, the American people like fair play, and we are inclined to suspect that the more these politicians attempt to create prejudice against such a man the more votes they will lose by such a course.

"Nature has solved the money question," says David B. Hill, the prophet of reorganized and expurgated Democracy. How nbe does Mr. Hill know that Nature will not solve the problems now presented in Democratic platforms if it is let alone to accomplish its work under another Republican administration? The Democratic party under Mr. Hill's leadership signally failed to solve the tariff question in 1893 and 1894. Nature seems have triumphantly succeeded in meeting the issue which succeeded free trade as a feature of Democratic platforms. Why didn't Mr. Hill and his Wall Street compatriots, when they assembled at St. Louis, just give three cheers for Nature and adjourn?

One of the beneficent results of a Republican administration is found in the magnificent rural free delivery system that has been established in the various States of the Union, and the work of establishing additional routes to the system is now in progress. The wonderful strides of the rural free delivery system for five years is the most marked feature of recent national growth. In 1889 only 200 routes were in operation. At the close of the present fiscal year there will be over 25,000 routes running, bringing a daily mail service to more than 12,500,000 people residing in rural districts. The appropriation for this service during the next year is $30,816,000. It is impossible to estimate the educational benefits that will accrue from this magnificent system, which as an aid to the higher civilization, will outrank any agency now in operation for the betterment of conditions and the uplifting of the human race. While primarily for the benefit of farmers, it really confers benefits upon every man, woman and child in the Union, and no money was ever so well spent as that set aside for the extension and improvement of this great agency for the extension of intelligence and quick communication among the masses.—Ex.

LOOKS LIKE TAGGART

New Democratic National Committee Will Probably Elect Him Chairman.
St. Louis, July 11.—The national committee, now in its make-up, met at 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning and again at 4 o'clock in the afternoon with the avowed intention on behalf of the supporters of Thomas Taggart of Indiana, of organizing by electing him chairman.

The early morning meeting was not fully attended, and the object aimed at was not accomplished. It was pointed out by Mr. Mack of New York that it would be discourteous to take any action until Mr. Parker, as the candidate, was consulted. The Taggart men, while not having enough to elect, still suggested that Mr. Hill, Mr.

THOMAS TAGGART.

Sheehan and Mr. Belmont, the candidate's friends, were still here, and adopted a resolution that they be invited to meet the committee in the afternoon. When afternoon came there were three complications in the way of electing. Chairman Jones of the old committee boldly asserted that such action as contemplated would be unprecedented and in fact illegal. It also turned out that at a late hour the committee adopted a resolution authorizing Chairman Jones of the old committee to call the new committee together in New York city at such time as he might suggest.

Then the other thing was that Senator Hill and Mr. Sheehan left for New York at noon and could not therefore attend the meeting. Senator Jones, the retiring chairman of the committee, made this statement: "The national convention by specific resolution authorized me, in fact instructed me, to call the first meeting of the new committee in New York city. Until I call it the new committee cannot organize and meetings they have are unauthorized. Now let me say, forcibly if need be, that acting under the convention authority, I will call the national committee to meet in New York city at such time as Judge Parker shall designate, for before I call it I shall consult him. It would be an unprecedented thing for the new committee to organize without consultation with the candidate. Such a thing was never heard of."

Just after the afternoon session began Mr. Taggart, who was presiding, was asked to retire so that he need not be embarrassed. August Belmont of New York was called into the room and asked to give Judge Parker's views. He said he could not do so. Colonel Guffey insisted that precedent demanded that the committee courteously await Judge Parker's opinion.

"In fact," he said, "the resolution of last night precluded any action until Chairman Jones issued a call for New York."

Senator Bailey of Texas said that the matter should be settled at once. It was customary for the committee to meet immediately after the adjournment and elect a chairman, and a resolution was passed last Thursday to that effect by the convention. "I guess," he said, "that we can have Judge Parker's views in a few minutes from his friends here, if they care to give it."

After nearly two hours of debate Senator Bailey offered to compromise if the committee would adopt a resolution indorsing the candidacy of Thos. Taggart for chairman of the committee. Mr. Mack agreed to this and the resolution was adopted. The committee will therefore meet in New York on the call of former Chairman Jones.

Confesses Five Murders.

Pittsburg, July 11.—John Johnson (colored), who with Frank Ousley, also colored, will hang next Thursday for the murder of Grocer James Donnelly, has confessed to four other murders. Johnson says he was born in Georgia and when about eighteen years old, started out as a tramp. Two of his victims were with him traveling in a boxcar on a Virginia railroad, and after murdering them for the $5 in their possession, he threw their bodies from the car while the train was going. His other two victims suffered a like fate on a Georgia railroad.

St. Petersburg In a Ferment Over Telegram of Congratulation to the Wyborg Regiment.

Many Think That Kaiser Intends to Abandon His Position As a Mere Onlooker.

St. Petersburg, July 11.—A sensation has been caused by the publication in the Russky Invalid, the army organ, of a telegram from Emperor William to the colonel of the Wyborg (Finland) regiment of which the emperor is honorary colonel-in-chief. The emperor congratulates the regiment on the prospect of meeting the KAISER WILHELM II.

Japanese and adds that he is proud his Wyborg regiment will have the honor of fighting for its emperor, the fatherland and the fame of the Russian army. In concluding the emperor says: "My sincere wishes accompany the regiment. God bless its standards."

This telegram was only published Sunday morning, but its contents had become widely known by evening and formed the general topic of discussion. A considerable section of the public even deduced from the message that Germany intends before long to abandon her position as a mere onlooker.

More Russian Reverses.

Tokio, July 11.—General Kuroki reports that on Wednesday, July 6, a detachment of Japanese troops drove off 300 Russian cavalry and occupied Kan Chang, the enemy retreating northward. The Japanese had no casualties. The Russian losses are unknown. On the afternoon of July 5, 1,300 Russian cavalry attacked a Japanese detachment near the north entrance to Fenshui pass. The Russians were repulsed and the Japanese regained possession of the entrance to the pass. The Japs had four men killed and three wounded.

A Chinese Outbreak.

Chefoo, July 11.—The American consul general (John Fowler) has received news that anti-Christian riots have broken out at Chao Yuen, about 65 miles south of Teng Chou Foo, and 85 miles west of Chefoo. Immediate assistance was asked. The Taoti dispatched troops and telegraphed the authorities at Hwang Hsien and Teng Chou Foo also to send assistance if required. Foreigners are not believed to be in danger. The cause of the riots is not known.

Official Confirmation.

St. Petersburg, July 11.—Lieutenant General Sakharoff, in a dispatch to the general staff confirms the report of the Japanese occupation of Kai Chou. He says that the Russians did not exceed 150 killed or wounded. The general adds that the Japanese are on the Yinkow road.

THE SCHAFER CASE

Grand Jury at Bedford Returns Its Investigation.

Bedford, Ind., July 11.—The grand jury investigating the murder of Miss Sarah C. Schafer reconvened today.

At the time the jury adjourned a few weeks ago they had been going over the evidence that had been submitted to the grand jury. Many people believe that the grand jury will return an indictment.

An important witness, a woman, who was not before the first grand jury, will be called during the week. Interest in the case is intense throughout this section.

Struck by Lightning.

Greenfield, Ind., July 11.—As the result of a bolt of lightning coming apparently from a clear sky, Pierce Kauble lies at his home, three miles southeast of here, in an unconscious condition and very seriously injured. Three horses which he was driving to a reaper at the time the lightning struck were killed outright and the machinery of the reaper ruined. The accident happened before a heavy shower and while the sky was apparently quite clear.

Robert N. Lamb Dead.

Indianapolis, July 11.—Robert N. Lamb, the oldest practitioner at the Indiana bar and for many years a prominent member of the profession in Indianapolis, is dead at his home in this city at the age of eighty years. He suffered from a stroke of paralysis four years ago and had been an invalid most of the time since.

OPERATOR BLUNDERED

New Jersey Excursion Train Wrecked and Fourteen Killed.

New York, July 11.—Fourteen persons were killed and about a hundred injured in a collision which occurred at Midvale, N. J., just before noon Sunday, when a regular passenger train on the Greenwood Lake branch of the Erie railroad ran into an excursion train that had stopped to take water. All the dead and injured lived in Hoboken, Jersey City and New York. The accident is believed to have resulted from a tower operator having lowered his signal too soon, and this was admitted by W. J. Cooke, general passenger agent of the Erie railroad, who gave out a statement in which he said: "The operator in the tower failed to set the block signal against the train following."

The train which was run into was a special carrying members of the First Platt Deutscher association of Hoboken on their annual outing, and had 800 passengers. It consisted of twelve cars and two engines. The flagman of the special signalled the engineer of the incoming train, but owing to a curve in the road, his flag was not seen until it was too late. It is claimed that the engineer of the regular train had slowed down to about ten miles an hour before he crashed into the special, but his engine tore through the rear car the greater part of its length and drove the forward end of that car into the car ahead. The killed and injured were in those two cars. The wreckage did not catch fire, and the work of taking out the dead and maimed was accomplished quickly.

The passengers from the uninjured coaches ran back and joined in the work, and the residents of Midvale, many of whom had heard the crash, assisted them. The fourteen dead were soon laid beside the track and the injured were carried to the nearby houses.

Cowboys' Bloody Raid.

Aspen, Col., July 11.—Word has reached here that 1,500 sheep owned by H. H. Lawson of Salt Lake City had been killed by Gunnison county cowboys. Lawson had several thousand sheep on the ranges in this vicinity. One bunch was in Taylor park in charge of three herders. The cowboys swooped down upon the herders and disarmed them. They then cut the throats of about 1,500 of the sheep.

A Visit of Courtesy.

Plymouth, Eng., July 11.—Thousands of persons witnessed the arrival at Plymouth Sunday of the most powerful German fleet ever seen in Great Britain. Eight battleships and seven cruisers steamed into the naval base on a visit of courtesy amidst deafening salutes, and the British and German admirals exchanged visits. The courtesies will be kept up until July 13, when the Germans will depart.

Senators in Collision.

St. Louis, July 11.—An automobile in which Senator Tillman of South Carolina and Senator J. W. Bailey of Texas were riding last night, collided with a Jefferson avenue streetcar while running rapidly, and both were thrown into the street, but neither was seriously injured. Senator Tillman suffered a sprained ankle and Mr. Bailey was bruised about the body.

Leopold Institutes Reforms.

Brussels, July 11.—King Leopold has decided to reform the judicial system of the Congo Free State in order to avoid the establishment of British consular tribunals. Henceforth only judges and magistrates belonging to the Belgian courts will be allowed to sit in the Congo Free State, so that the best guarantees of justice can be given to all foreigners there.

Balloons in War.

Tokio, July 11.—The Japanese captured eight guns during the fighting around Port Arthur July 4, and they reconnoitered from a war balloon.

OVER THE STATE

Some of the Things That Are Attracting Attention In Indiana.

A FITTING COMPLIMENT

Charles Eugene Banks Re-elected President of Western Association of Writers at Winona.

Indiana Gets All the Other Officers Except the State Vice-Presidents.

Winona Lake, Ind., July 11.—The annual meeting of the Western Association of Writers has come to an end. The meeting this year was on all sides declared to be the most interesting of the series. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

NEIGHBORHOOD EXCITED

Evidences of a Cruel Crime in Henry County.

Newcastle, Ind., July 11.—Great excitement prevails at Greensboro, fourteen miles southwest of this city, and the county authorities are investigating the murder of a child of John Starbuck and the serious injury of Mrs. Starbuck. The bodies of Mrs. Starbuck and the child were found in a cistern by the husband.

Starbuck had been in Greensboro and returned late at night. His wife and child were missing and there was great disorder in and about the house. The screen in one window was torn and chairs in the house were upset. He called neighbors and searched the premises. They finally found the bodies in the cistern. The baby had been drowned but the woman was still alive but unconscious. It is not thought that she will recover enough to give details of the crime.

People near there heard screams early in the evening. Greensboro is about one and one-quarter miles from the scene of the crime. There is no apparent motive for the crime.

Oil Operators Surprised.

Muncie, Ind., July 11.—A reduction in the price of Indiana oil of 5 cents has been announced. The announcement of the decrease came as a surprise and the operators are under the impression that it is the result of the extensive laying of pipe lines by the Standard and other facilities for handling the oil for which the Standard is responsible, and that the company has decided that the operators must bear the expense.

Family Is Mystified.

Richmond, Ind., July 11.—Another day has passed without information being gained as to the whereabouts of the Rev. Dr. Ellwood A. Ellis, who mysteriously disappeared from his home here last Tuesday. His family and friends are more mystified than ever and the police department says that it has not the slightest clue upon which to work.

Both Are Now Dead.

Indianapolis, July 11.—Mrs. Michael Kane, who was shot in the back by her husband Friday morning, is dead at the city hospital as the result of her wounds. A few hours after her death Kane expired as the result of the gunshot wound which he inflicted upon himself immediately after he shot his wife.

Boilermaker's Body Severed.

Princeton, Ind., July 11.—Geo. Crow, thirty-five years old, boilermaker, was instantly killed in the Southern railway shops by being crushed between the apron of an engine and the tank, which had been disconnected, and were shoved together by another locomotive. Crow's body was cut in two.

A Singular Hallucination.

Lafayette, Ind., July 11.—Under the hallucination that it is his duty to identify the bodies of soldiers buried in the Tippecanoe battlefield, John L. Johnson, for many years custodian of the battlefield, is in jail awaiting the action of a lunacy commission.

Lockjaw Victim at Laporte.

Laporte, Ind., July 11.—Tetanus has developed in the case of Donald Cochran, a boy who had his left hand lacerated by the explosion of a blank cartridge on the Fourth. His condition is extremely critical.

Wheat Ruined by Rust.

Pierceville, Ind., July 11.—As a result of the two weeks of rainy weather just prior to the harvest, the rust has attacked the wheat and many fields are reported as almost entirely ruined.

A WONDERFUL INVENTION.

It is interesting to note that fortunes are frequently made by the invention of articles of minor importance. Many of the most popular devices are those designed to benefit the people and meet popular conditions, and one of the most interesting of these that has ever been invented is the Dr. White Electric Comb, patented Jan. 1, '99. These wonderful Combs positively cure dandruff, hair falling out, sick and nervous headaches, and when used with Dr. White's Electric Hair Brush are positively guaranteed to make straight hair curly in 25 days' time. Thousands of these electric combs have been sold in various cities of the Union, and the demand is constantly increasing. Our agents are rapidly becoming rich selling these combs. They positively sell on sight. Send for sample. Men's size 35c, ladies 50c—(half while we are introducing them.) The Dr. White Electric Comb Co., Decatur, Ill.

RUSHVILLE, IND., JULY 11, 1904

LOCAL BREVITIES

The last few days have been the hottest of the season.

Earl Churchill is on the sick list with bilious fever, but is some better.

The regular meeting of the Rush Oil company will be held tomorrow night.

Miss Jessie Spann has been offered a position as Latin teacher in the Ogden, Utah, schools.

The reorganized Rushville base ball team is holding daily practice at the South Main street grounds.

Contractor W. F. Kenner has begun the frame work of Hyman Schatz's new house, on West Third street.

Mrs. J. P. Guffin has had each of the houses in "Tony Row" repainted. Each house is now a different color.

The dirt being taken off the streets by the traction company is being used to fill up the lot on which the car barns is to be built.

Thirty-one persons were received into the membership of the St. Paul's M. E. church yesterday at the morning services held for that purpose.

The Rushville Stars will cross bats with the Gwynneville team here Sunday afternoon. Turney, of Connorsville, will pitch for Rushville, and Alexander will pitch for Gwynneville.

A car load of cinders has been purchased by the Indianapolis Brewing Company for packing in the walls of their new cooler in this city. The cinders came in this morning overt the J. M. & I.

Shelbyville Republican: A huckster named Harcourt from Rush county came to town yesterday and put his rig in the Campbell livery stable. He had with him a suit of clothes which he brought to have cleaned. He left the suit, which was wrapped up, in the office at the livery stable and when he returned, the clothes had disappeared. The officers were notified.

The business of winding up the affairs of the defunct St. Paul bank is progressing slowly and it will be some time before the trustee is ready to make a report. There were about 300 depositors in the institution, which together with the large amount of outstanding paper for small amounts, makes the volume of business comparatively large. As yet there is no talk of reorganization, and it is the general opinion that it will be many a day before St. Paul has another bank, many of the depositors being disgusted with the results of the last effort to run bank there.

Johnson says

Those CIGARS are always good.

There is never any doubt about getting just the kind of a cigar you want from our cigar case. In the first place we buy nothing but brands that has stood the test of particular smokers. Then we have the variety in colors from light to dark cigars; last but not least, we keep our cigars right—just moist enough.

Recommended for West Point.

Congressman James E. Watson has named Lawrence E. Geraghty, Jr., of this city, as his choice in selecting a likely student for the West Point Military Academy, and Lawrence will in the near future take the examination which the applicant must pass before entering the academy.

Deficiency is Cured.

In Saturday's Greenfield Tribune, editor Montgomery has the following comment to make on the senatorial race:

"The Republican senatorial situation in Indiana has been interesting and a swift mover from the start. With a dozen likely and able candidates and all hustling it was the storm center of political interest. While all enjoyed the situation, there was a feeling that something was lacking—and investigation showed that Henry county had no candidate. This matter was soon remedied however, the friends of Judge Mark E. Forkner of New Castle, met and launched a boom for the Judge. Quite a number of men have been mentioned for the place that do not size up with the Judge in legal ability, oratorical power and general all round statesman like qualities. Judge Forkner is one of the ablest men in Indiana. He would certainly make a very worthy, creditable and valuable member of the United States Senate in case the mantle of Senator Fairbanks should fall upon him. Now since Henry county has been heard from and the statesmen of that county are in their usual frame of mind and condition, Hancock county is ready for the senatorial contest to proceed."

Ought to Compare Notes

The Greensburg papers ought to agree on a statement of some kind when they expect their readers to believe all the rot some of them publish about the Rushville ball team. Referring to Friday's game the Review says: "The Greensburg team is loud in their praise of Umpire Yazel, who they say, gave one of the squarest decisions that was ever given them by an umpire away from home."

And the News: "The umpire had one arm, but he used it well to Rushville's advantage."
